

The Cookeville Bank

The Cookeville Bank opened its doors for business on Tuesday morning, Feb. 14, 1911.

The new bank is practically a reorganization of the Bank of Cookeville, which was put into the hands of a receiver a little more than a year ago.

On Monday Chancellor A. H. Roberts issued an order terminating the receivership of the old bank and turning its business to the new one, it having proposed to assume all liabilities and take all assets of the bank under the court order. An ample bond was made guaranteeing all deposits of the old bank in full, and they will be paid in certificates bearing 4 per cent interest and due in six, twelve and eighteen months.

The work of reorganization has been done through the effort of Mr. Robert L. Farley, of whom there is no need to speak, for everybody in this section knows "Bob."

We believe that the opening of the Cookeville Bank under the circumstances will do more to restore confidence and relieve the financial situation here than anything else that could be done. Now let our citizens generally cooperate as fully as they can, and we predict a revival of our business interests.

The following officers for the new bank have been elected:

C. H. Rickman, president.
R. L. Farley, first vice-president
J. C. Barnes, vice-president
L. D. Johnson, vice-president.
A. A. Staley, book-keeper.

Cashier will be elected in a few days.

The officers above named and the following gentlemen are stockholders in the bank:

J. A. Epperson, T. J. Clark, T. L. Johnson, J. E. Oliver, S. Hitchcock, James Johnson, J. H. Verble, Judge D. L. Lansden, G. A. Maxwell, A. G. Maxwell, J. H. Jared, J. B. Ferguson, T. J. Gregory, W. B. Smith, R. P. Morgan, Mike Moore and G. N. Guthrie, Jr.

The bank is located in the building formerly occupied by the Peoples Bank.

Dear Editor: Please give me space in your valuable little paper for a few minutes chat with the readers.

We are having some very nice weather now.

School is progressing nicely with 475 enrolled. Hurrah! for old Overton County. It has more schools and better schools than before. Education cannot be acquired without pain and application. It is troublesome and deep digging for pure water but when you reach the spring then you are satisfied. Every grain helps fill the bushel. So does the improvement of every moment increase knowledge.

What has become of the writer of Frederick, Okla.

What are you people doing at Rickman; let us hear from some of you through the Herald.

R. J. Wilson made a flying trip to Monterey Monday.

You Bushing writer come often as I like to read letters from you. That is where my dear mother died. Death is but life for a true believer. Only a few years do we journey here and then comes death, which transports us on the road we have traveled. Either virtue, happiness and joy to a happy paradise or the road of passion, lust and vice to destructive wretchedness.

FIELD SEED

We have just received a car of strictly choice field seeds, including Burt and White Oats, Red Clover, Sapling Clover, Timothy, Redtop, Bluegrass and Orchard Grass. We bought these seed when the market was at its lowest, and are going to offer them on a cash basis for a very small margin of profit. If you are in the market for field seed we are in position to save you some money. Don't fail to see us before you buy. Remember we sell nothing but strictly choice seed and for less money than you can buy poor seed elsewhere. Phone, write or come to see us.

Accidents will happen, but the best-regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

Buy your clover, redtop, orchard grass, millet and Burt oat seed from Smith & Davis Hardware Co.

The Herald is late this week.
